British Columbia has a unique set of challenges. And United Way British Columbia is uniquely set up to overcome them. Thanks to donors like you, we lift isolated seniors from loneliness in our communities, support local kids with after-school programs, and help our neighbors take care of their basic needs at United Way Food Hubs. Why? Because we’re here for each other, strengthening the vital connections in the community that matters most, yours.

Learn more. Here.
uwbc.ca/here